The lamps of Faro Barcelona illuminate a chalet in Moscow

By Marketing Lorefar | In | Posted Apr 21, 2017

Belisama Lighting Studio is behind the project of this particular dwelling located 40 Km away from Moscow. In order to illuminate the different rooms, the studio has used the lamps of Faro Barcelona to provide warmth. For this chalet, they have chosen minimalistic lamps that contrast with the wood that covers the walls and the floor.

At the entrance, we find TECTO ceiling lamps for a general lighting that is perfect to provide homogeneous light to the room. To accentuate paintings and mirrors, the LINK wall lamp over the kitchen island and over the dining table. The set is perfect given that in the kitchen, it stresses the horizontality and in the dining room, it creates an original contrast with the round table.

On the wall, and illuminating the paintings, in this case, we can find the single-bulb LINK wall lamp that provides the perfect beam to highlight the decorative elements. The use of LINK at the entrance and at the hall provides continuity to the different rooms. In the master bedroom, we can find the CELIA lamp, which, thanks to its articulated frame, can be directed to provide environmental lighting as well as to act as a reading light.

Finally, in the bathroom, we can find the TOLA ceiling lamp light, with an IP44 rating, ideal for
